Commander's Comments

Comrades & Sisters:

A lot of changes have occurred at the Post since the last newsletter was published. Let me go over them with you.

(1) Devin Geegh is still your Commander, but has requested an indefinite leave of absence due to new job opportunities within his company. He may be transferred to another city. Devin, we wish you well in your endeavors.

(2) Due to several resignations, the following persons are now your new officers for Post 2749: Senior Vice and acting Commander – Dennis Nester; Quartermaster – Jim Piepenbrok. Open positions include all three Trustee positions and Junior Vice Commander. In addition, there may be a House Committee position open in the future. If you would like to fill one of these positions, please come to the Post meeting on December 2nd and have your name placed in nomination. We will open the vacant positions for nominations at every meeting until they are filled.

I would like to thank everybody for their help during this time of change and encourage you to continue to stay active in this way. Things are moving forward thanks to you.

Some of the Coming Events for the next two months are as follows:

Quartermaster's Queries

Comrade's All:

This is my first attempt at a newsletter. We will publish one every other month, so the next one will be available for January-February. We are trying to save money and provide faster delivery by e-mailing them to you if possible. We will also have copies available to pick up at the Post. If neither of these options will work for you, we will mail you one. Please let us know if you need them mailed to you, as it costs us 44 cents to mail each newsletter out now. The bulk rate has gone the same way as the Dodo bird.

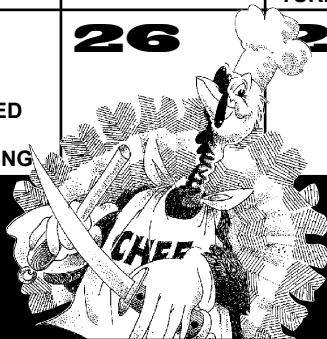

I will have a more detailed report for the next newsletter.

Jim Piepenbrok
Quartermaster
