Commander's Corner

Sorry, but the late newsletter is a result of an overloaded Post Commander. November is a very busy month at our Post. We have Patriots Pen essays to judge and Voice of Democracy. Veterans Day is on the 11th. We have the school visits on Friday the 10th. I'm getting requests for Color Guards to raise a new Flag at Walmart! It's Poppy Drive time on November 3rd and 4th.

Our Post Meeting is at 6pm on the 7th. Then we will host the 4th District Meeting on Saturday the 18th. We will be hosting the Reliable Tool Party on November 4th!

When you read this newsletter, NIPSCO will have installed a new gas meter of sufficient size to meet all of our appliance and heating needs. Some plumbing work will be needed to feed the gas into the kitchen. Lots going on to clean up our kitchen. Thanks to Mr. Klint Kammerer for a donation of stainless steel panels for our kitchen wall along the east side. Installation was completed by George Klink, Jerry Brody and Kevin Bohde. Look for more to come on the kitchen renovations!!!

Got some time on your hands! Come out to the post, get involved and make a difference.

Commander

POST AUXILIARY

Dear Post 2749 Auxiliary members the holidays are fast approaching us. This is an especially important time to remember our Veterans. Your Auxiliary is in the process of identifying a Veteran and their family who may be in need of a little help this season. We are also excited about the new homeless Veterans' shelter being opened in Waterloo. The shelter will hold up to 4 people and offers stays for up to 30 days as well as free food, beds, job counseling and mental health counseling. Hopes are that it will be opened by Thanksgiving. The Auxiliary plans on making a donation to help with needed items. November 11th is Veterans Day, and we have volunteers to make ham and beans. We are asking for side dishes to be brought in for the meal. Please have them at the Post by 10:00 A.M. on November 11th. Our next Auxiliary meeting will be Monday, November 20. Please try to attend. We are doing wonderful things for our Veterans and need your ideas and help. I hope you and your family have a blessed Thanksgiving holiday.

Jessie Davenport
Auxiliary President

VFW Post 2749 Commander Jim Cook thanks Klint Kammerer, President of KDI, Kendallville, IN for the donating of the Stainless Steel Metal and precision Laser Cutting for the East Kitchen all at Post 2749. The Stainless steel was installed by Veterans George Klink, Jerry Brady, Tom Seigel, and Auxiliary member Kevin Bohde.
